Welcome to the EPRI PQ Project Forum for 2003

About This Site

The PQ Project Forum provides information about current power quality projects conducted by EPRI on behalf of EPRI-member utilities and their associates. The menu to the left is always available, enabling you to easily navigate the Forum.

What's Here?

With a username and password, project sponsors can access information about a particular PQ project. Each project home page includes:

- ▶ A description of the project.
- ▶ News and updates.
- ▶ Documents and presentations.
- ▶ Task schedule, including charts and milestones.
- ▶ A discussion group for the exchange of ideas.
- ▶ Answers to frequently asked questions.
- ▶ A list of project members.

Get Started

To go to a base-funded project, click on a Target to the left and then click on a particular project name under that Target. For sponsors of co-funded projects and tailored-collaboration (TC) projects, you must first log in to view the list of projects that your company sponsors.
